

Can you answer these questions? Most of the answers can be found in the Battle of Britain and Blitz section of the museum but you will also have to think about what you already know.

1.

Can you find these objects?

What are they?

Who did they belong to and what job did that person do?

What did the 'M' stand for?

2.

Can you find this?

What is it and where did it come from?

Why do you think wartime school children liked to collect objects like this?

3.

What did Mrs Stone use this bicycle for?

Why do you think bicycles were so important during World War Two?

4.

Why did windows during World War Two look like this?

DO NOT TOUCH ANY OF THE EXHIBITS UNLESS YOU ARE ASKED TO DO SO BY AN ADULT.
MOVE CAREFULLY AND SENSIBLY AROUND THE MUSEUM AT ALL TIMES.

5.

Why did fighter pilots wear goggles?

6.

Can you find this?

Can you find out what this piece of grey material used to be?

7.

What did people put on the roof of their Anderson Shelter?

What is the difference between the Morrison & the Anderson Air Raid Shelters? Both can be seen in the museum.

8.

Can you find this picture of Norah Sharples?
She was a member of the Women's Land Army.
Can you find out the sort of things she had to do during World War Two?

9.

Can you find out what FAP stood for? You will have to look VERY carefully!

10

Find the big yellow metal sign. What coloured lights indicated an air raid was expected? Where might you have seen this sign?

11

Who is the person on this poster?

12

Who did the wedding dress belong to? What was it made from?

Why do you think it was made out of that material?

13

What did this object do?

Who would have had the job of making this object work?